

Military Toronto – World War II – Military District 2

Toronto was first designated as Military District 2 in the 1860s. It held this designation until after World War II. Here is a sampling of the many marks indicating this district.

The bottom cover is a front only but it has a lovely S.O.S. mark.